New SUNDAY NIGHT MASSES

5:00 pm November 21 and December 19

This fall we are adding a 5 pm Sunday Mass on the 3rd Sunday of the month. Join us!

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE – is displayed in our church during the month of November, the month of All Souls. It contains the names of those whose funerals took place here at Holy Family Parish this past year. You are welcome to add names of deceased loved ones. Parishioners are asked to remember in their prayers those whose names appear in the Book of Remembrance and all who have died. “May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.”

PASTOR'S CORNER

What or who do you take for granted? I know, it's hard to think about something you don't think much about! But try... especially at this time of Thanksgiving. There are certainly people and things you and I depend upon that we just expect to be there for us. Maybe it's the person who delivers the newspaper or those who provide emergency services. Mindfulness is important in the process of being thankful. With our busy, frenetic lives, we can go from one thing or person to another and just take, utilize and enjoy without much thought about who and what is behind it's availability and convenience. The immigrant laborer who picked the vegetable or the poor single mother of three who packed your box of chocolates are just two examples. Then, there are those in our own family, parish and neighborhood who serve us in ways we don't think much about – the person(s) who put food on the table, the one who always remembers your birthday, the individual who makes life just a bit easier, cleaner, and more comfortable. May your Thanksgiving be filled with mindfulness, which engenders an uplifted spirit, a sincere gratitude, and a respect for all those whom we might take for granted in the course of our busy lives. I include below a special Thanksgiving Grace, which you can pray before your Thanksgiving meal.

A Thanksgiving Grace

*Gracious God, giver of all good gifts,
We gather today to give thanks.*

*We thank You for all Your gifts to us,
Those we recognize and those we take for granted.*

*We thank You for the blessings of the year
And for Your presence with us.*

Help us to be grateful and generous.

Bless all gathered here, bless our meal,

Those who made it possible and those who prepared it.

*We are especially mindful of those not with us today,
Especially, (Include Names)..., whom we miss and love.*

Help us to remember those who lack food,

And those who lack family and friends, and are so in need.

May this time together remind us of our love and Your goodness.

*For all Your gifts to us, for everything we have,
For all that we are, we give thanks to You, O God.*

Amen.

Blessings to you and your family at Thanksgiving!

Fr. Bob

PASTORAL VISITS

At this time during the pandemic, visits to homebound parishioners by Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion must be brief, and can only be done by fully vaccinated ministers whose availability may be limited. Requests for this ministry should be made through the parish office. However, if a person is dying (even in the early stages), a visit by a priest can be arranged for reception of the Sacraments of Reconciliation, the Anointing of the Sick, and Viaticum (Holy Communion for the Dying) and other special prayers and blessings. These arrangements can be made by notifying a priest directly or by using the emergency option on the parish phone system.
