Pastor's Corner

You may remember Bishop Mark O'Connell generously filling in on occasion here at Holy Family to celebrate Sunday Mass. Well, he won't be available to help us out much longer because Pope Leo XIV appointed him the Bishop of the Diocese of Albany, New York last Monday. He will be installed on December 5, 2025. Those who know him knew it was just a matter of time when he would be asked to lead a diocese. A very approachable person, Bishop Mark has many gifts, extensive experience in various roles of Church leadership, and offers a very pastoral approach to all that he does. After his ordination to the episcopacy in 2016, Bishop Mark served as the Regional Bishop of the North Region of the archdiocese as well as Pastor of St. Theresa Parish in North Reading. In 2023, he was appointed Vicar General and Moderator of the Curia of the Archdiocese by Cardinal Sean O'Malley. In a statement released following the announcement, Archbishop Richard Henning said, "I have had the blessing over the last year to work with Bishop Mark O'Connell. He is a remarkably capable man and very humble. He loves people and he loves the priests of our archdiocese. He has served Boston joyfully and effectively for decades. While we are sorry to lose him here in Boston we rejoice with the clergy, religious, and lay faithful of the Diocese of Albany. We are sending you our best and wishing you and your new bishop every blessing!" At a press conference in the Diocese of Albany, Bishop Mark said, "I am delighted and deeply grateful to God and the Holy Father, Pope Leo, for calling me to serve as the 11th Bishop of Albany. I am truly honored to be your bishop and embrace this role with great joy. Wherever this journey leads, I will walk with you, guided by the hope and peace of the Risen Lord. I ask for your prayers and goodwill, and I pledge the same to you." We offer Bishop Mark our prayers and best wishes that God will bless him with many happy and fruitful years in his service to the people of the Diocese of Albany. He will be missed!

God bless you!

Fr. Bob

ALL SAINTS DAY

Saturday, November 1

All Saints Day Mass - Saturday, November 1 at 8:15 am, we will have a special Mass to celebrate the feast of All Saints Day. This feast celebrates all holy men and women who are in heaven, both the known saints and those not officially canonized. Although not a Holy Day of Obligation this year, it is a solemn feast to honor these saints as examples of holiness and to recognize their role as intercessors for the Church on earth. It is a day of connection between the saints in heaven, the faithful departed, and those still living- what the Church calls the "Communion of Saints." The weekend Masses this year fall on All Souls Day when we pray that all of the faithful departed, if not already, may now rest in peace in heaven. Come pray with us!

DIAPER DRIVE

The Respect Life diaper drive ends this week. Let's fill the Pack and Plays at each entrance with Pampers in sizes 3, 4 & 5 for those in need this month!

The diapers will be donated to two maternity shelter homes, Friends of the Unborn in Quincy and the Bethesda House in Pembroke. Both homes provide housing and support to young mothers.

Box of Joy Please return your Box by tomorrow, Mon., Oct. 27.

If you did not take an envelope, you can pay for the shipping of your box via this link: <https://crosscatholic.org/box-of-joy/online/#shipping> or the QR code.

Each Sunday, the 9:00 am Mass is live-streamed for parishioners unable to attend in-person. The live-stream is one of the many ministries offered by Holy Family, and volunteers are needed. An iPad is set up to run the live-stream and is easy to operate and learn.

The commitment is one Sunday a month. If you are interested in helping, contact the Holy Family office at 781-934-5055 or office@holyfamilyduxbury.org.
