“Happy Fourth”, everyone!

And “Happy 250th, USA”! Plenty of problems along the way, and far from perfect, but at its best, this country is the land of liberty, rights, opportunities and democracy. Still a work in progress, and much more to be done, but hopefully in another two hundred and fifty years, those who come after us will be able to celebrate the 500th birthday of the United States of America. May God bless America!
